GENERAL VIEW OF PRESENT PARISH BUILDINGS

FOREWORD

THE prime purpose of this book is to serve as a souvenir of the work done by the priests, sisters and people of St. Lawrence Parish, in the course of a hundred years.

Behind them lies the fascinating story of that band of brave and daring pioneers who ventured forth with naught but daring in their hearts to establish churches and to build schools, but still more, lives for God.

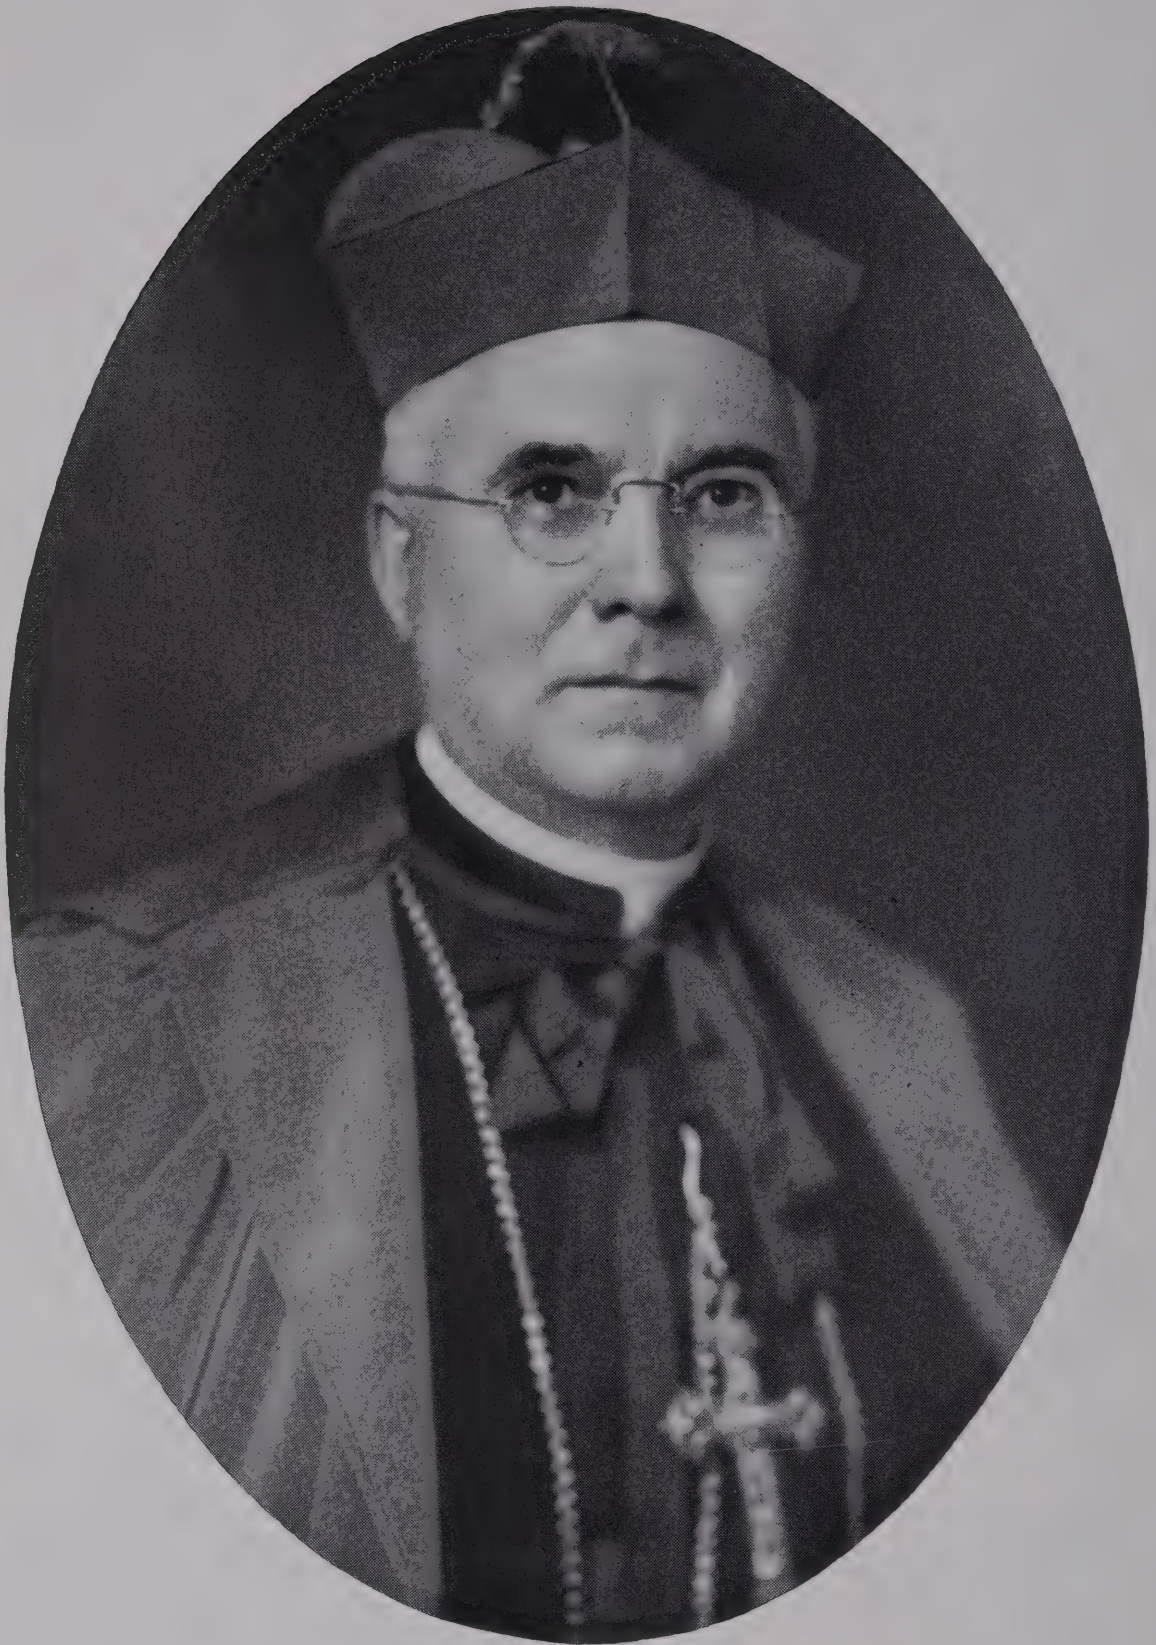

St. Lawrence Church, known as the Mother Church of Northern Washington County, has served many a mission. To mention only one of the pioneer priests, Father Rehrl, who had charge of eleven parishes, was stationed at St. Lawrence.

It is but fitting that the parish so rich in history, should commemorate the Centennial Jubilee of its existence.

We glory in the achievements of the pioneers. We feel honored in the honor they have brought to the Church.

It is meet that we pay them our heartfelt tribute of admiration and affection in the following pages, so that their work may stand as a lasting monument for generations to come.

History of St. Lawrence Parish

St. Lawrence, Wisconsin

THE PIONEER PERIOD

IT WAS in the year 1846 that the congregation of St. Lawrence at St. Lawrence, Wis., Town of Hartford, was organized, and as far as the records go to show, the Catholics at this place were first visited in the preceding year by the Most Reverend M. Heiss.

Then the REV. F. X. OBERMUELLER (Precious Blood Father) came to these people and a concerted effort was made to build the church, which was finally done, the structure, when dedicated, being named by him in honor of St. Lawrence. This log church, located at the South-West corner of the Cemetery, was blessed by Bishop Henni, October 1846.

As the history of the parish and its missions is so closely connected with the missionary work of its early priests, we shall recount some of their life's work.

REVEREND F. X. OBERMUELLER was born Oct. 6, 1810 in Schwartzburg, Voralberg (Austria); he entered the United States in 1844. He was ordained by Bishop Henni, June 1846, the first German priest ordained by Bishop M. Henni. He entered Milwaukee diocese in 1850. He went to Europe in 1854 and upon his return, he came back to Milwaukee in 1865.

His missionary work brought him to the various places: St. Boniface, Germantown (1846); Port Washington (1847); Thompson (1849); St. Martin, Granville (1851-53); Cleveland, O. (1860); St. Lawrence, Jefferson (1865-71); St. Rose, La Crosse (1872-86); Consultor of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee (1878-81). He died at La Crosse, Wis., in 1886.

THE FIRST RESIDENT PASTOR -- HIS SUCCESSORS

The REV. CHARLES SCHRAUDENBACH was the first resident pastor at St. Lawrence, who came to the parish in 1847. It was under his administration that the erection of a school house was begun. There were three different congregations in his care in 1849.

BY THE MOST REV. M. HENNI

November 3, 1847

He was succeeded in 1849 by the REV. MICHAEL BEITER. He was born Feb. 22, 1824 in Munich, Bavaria; he entered the United States in 1847. He was ordained by Bishop Henni Sept. 29, 1847. His first appointment was St. Mary's Church, Milwaukee, where he served as assistant to Fr. Heiss in 1847. From 1849-54 he served as pastor of St. Lawrence. We find the following missions mentioned in the record: St. Willibrord; SS. Peter & Paul, and St.

EXTERIOR OF ST. LAWRENCE CHURCH

Mathias (1851-52); St. Patrick, St. Kilian and one at West Bend were attended by him and in each of them preparations for the erection of chapels have already been made (1850).

The old log church of St. Lawrence was replaced by a fine frame church and was blessed by Father Beiter on Feb. 1, 1854. The new church, located east of the present rectory, was nearly completed in 1854. Father Beiter died in 1883.

He was succeeded in 1855 by Father Casper Rehrl.

REVEREND CASPER REHRL, of Austrian descent, was born in Aichen, a suburb of Salzburg, Dec. 31, 1809, the son of simple working people. His success in the parochial school at Aichen entitled his parents to send their talented son, free of charge, to the Seminary at Salzburg. Besides Latin, German, French, English, Greek, and Hebrew which belonged to the curriculum of the Seminary, he also learned Syrian, Arabian, and Chaldean, which in later life as missionary in the wilderness of Wisconsin proved to be very practical. Besides he made special studies in philosophy, theology, Scripture, and history and received the degree of Doctor of Divinity at the Salzburg University.

He was ordained a priest of God, on Sept. 20, 1835 in Salzburg and worked in the diocese of Salzburg for nine years. However, after nine years of labors near his own home town, he was inspired to work as a missionary in some foreign country. His impulsive soul was deeply impressed when he realized that the German emigrants in North America were not being given the consolation of holy religion. Dr. Salzmann, a classmate of Fr. Rehrl, had previously come to Wisconsin, and was constantly corresponding with Father Rehrl, and was consequently an influential factor in Fr. Rehrl's decision in coming to America.

He began his journey in Jan. 1845 and landed at New Orleans during the first days of February. Here Fr. Rehrl worked at St. Vincent de Paul Parish, in which neighborhood many German immigrants had settled. But he intended merely to stop off at New Orleans on his way to the great Northwest, greatly populated with the German people.

On his arrival in Wisconsin, bishop Henni received him with open arms and immediately sent him into the wilderness, there to visit the abandoned immigrants and wherever possible to found parishes.

Father Rehrl was the first to make the rounds north of Milwaukee. With his pack on his back, his crucifix and a few religious books, he began his journey to visit the immigrants in the wilderness. Following Milwaukee River, he slowly advanced North, along blazed roads and Indian trails. Nights spent on layers of brush, or in hollow trees, with the wild beasts prowling about, were among his experiences. After wandering for three days, he came to the place in the river valley, which had already been chosen as the site of West Bend. The next morning he continued his work north along the river, and no doubt he came to the place where the village of Barton now stands today, but which was thick woods. Very few settlers could be found around this neighborhood, and, therefore, deeming the harvest not yet ripe enough for founding a parish here, he travelled on.

His first field of activity centered around the vicinity of the present church of St. John at Johnsbury, Fond du Lac County. From here he went in search for the Catholics over the whole vicinity as far as Chilton, Sheboygan, Fond du Lac, and even as far as Green Bay.

PRESENT RECTORY AND ST. LAWRENCE GROTTTO

It is difficult to ascertain exactly how many parishes Father Rehrl really founded. His ambition was to found parishes and then travel on, realizing that many other souls needed his help also.

In the Catholic Almanac we find him attending regularly parishes from 1846 to the year of his death in 1881. In order to impress more deeply upon the minds of the readers his great mission tours, mention will be made of the other parishes besides those mentioned above which he attended regularly. They are: St. Lawrence, Hartford; SS. Peter & Paul, Addison; St. Anthony, Addison; St. Mathias, Nabob; St. Mary's, Mayville; St. Mary's, West Bend; Immaculate Conception, Barton; Holy Angels, West Bend; Mother of Dolores, Fredonia; Holy Trinity, Newburg; St. Peter, Washington Co.; St. Finbar, Saukville; St. Augustine, Jackson; St. Mathias, Auburn.

ORGANIZATION OF SCHOOL SISTERS

His heart bled when he thought of the spiritual plight of the children. In a letter dated March 9, 1864, he says: "Without Catholic schools the Catholic religion is difficult to keep up in this country. It is in the rural districts, the condition in regard to schools is very poor. During the summer the people keep their children at home and during the winter children are taught by those who know naught else to earn a living. In one incident, I myself encountered a drunken teacher, and in such an intoxicated state the children should have hung a cowbell around his neck. Then the thought came to me to establish a Sisterhood under the name "School Sisters of St. Agnes."

After preparing a few essential Rules for his proposed Organization he set out in search for recruits. But in vain. In 1852 he returned to Europe hoping to obtain the required help there. Again he was unsuccessful. During his sojourn in Europe he visited Rome. There at the tomb of St. Agnes he conceived the idea of founding his Organization in honor of St. Agnes. He proposed his plan to Pope Pius IX who blessed and encouraged his undertaking. Three years later he returned to the United States and became pastor of Barton, and made this the center of his missionary activities. Here he finally succeeded in making a start in gathering material for his order of teaching nuns.

Gertrude Rehberg was the first to introduce herself with the desire to enter his proposed society of Sisters. Father Rehrl was overjoyed. With two other young ladies she made a vow to observe the regulations of the Institute for one year, the ceremonies taking place at Barton, August 12, 1858. She was named Sister Mary Agnes Clara, the others, Srs. Gertrude and Mechtildis. This was the beginning of the Congregation of St. Agnes. Much could be written on this subject alone, but lest we deviate too far from our own subject we will merely mention that a change in the location of the Mother House from Barton to Fond du Lac was made in 1870. To this day the Sisters of St. Agnes have their Mother House still at Fond du Lac, Wisconsin and are flourishing yearly. But to Father Rehrl all credit is due for his efforts and ambition for the founding of a Society of teaching Nuns which the rural districts so sorely needed.

As pastor of St. Lawrence church (1855-56) he served a number of other parishes, as the records show. On November 18, 1855 he baptized three children at St. Theresa; Nov. 25, one at SS. Peter & Paul; Nov. 28, two at St. Martin's; Nov. 30, two at St. Andrew's. In December 1855 we find him in charge of 8 parishes. He is found at St. Lawrence on Dec. 2, 8, 20, 30 and 31. In June he had charge of 11 parishes.

PRESENT SCHOOL AND CONVENT

As he became more and more feeble, unable to make any journeys, he finally retired at Barton, the scene where he began his work in America. The end came sooner than expected. Ever patient and resigned he still clung to life until heart disease overtook him during the night of Sept. 3, 1881, at the age of 71 years. The remains of Father Rehrl were buried in the cemetery about one half mile distant from St. Mary's church in Barton. There a white marble monument marks his last resting place, about half way between the gate and the chapel. Father REHRL can truly be called the Apostle of Wisconsin, especially of the entire Milwaukee river valley.

Father Rehrl was followed in 1856 by the REVEREND JOHN B. WEIKMANN, who remained until September, 1857.

From that date until April, 1861, the REVEREND JOSEPH REINDL was pastor of the congregation, and from the latter date until September, 1865, the REVEREND MICHAEL DEISENRIEDER.

During his administration an addition was built to the church and an organ and two bells were bought.

The next pastor was the REVEREND MARTIN WEISS, who remained from September 1865, until September 1881. He was born August 29, 1824 in Wuertenberg, Germany, entered the United States in 1851; was ordained in October 1851; died November 13, 1881. He was first stationed at Racine (1851); Burlington (1852-53); Fussville (1854-63); St. George, Manitowoc (1864); St. Lawrence (1865-81). He died away from his parish, being at the time in Europe, where he had gone in an effort to regain his failing health. During his pastorate a new priest-house (1874) and the present brick church (1880), were built, the latter at a cost of $40,000.

As successor to Father Weiss came the REVEREND NICHOLAS THILL, who maintained the pastorate until September, 1889. During his administration the new church was finished inside. The church was consecrated October 4, 1882, by Archbishop M. Heiss of Milwaukee. The Anniversary of the consecration of the church was to be observed on Sunday after the Solemnity of the Most Holy Rosary.

On August 15, 1883, St. Lawrence Congregation, in Town of Hartford and Addison, Washington County, was duly incorporated to the laws of the State by the Archbishop, M. Heiss, President ex officio; Pastor, Rev. N. Thill; Trustees, P. Wolf and Anton Mueller.

At the parish meeting August 15, 1885, the following members were appointed to the Building Committee for the erection of a new school: Michael Gehl, Wm. Zuern, P. Schwartz, Jr., and Carl Kohl. The new brick school house was erected in 1885 and completed in 1886 at a cost of $5,000.

Father Thill also appealed to the parishioners for contributions for three church bells, which were placed in the church tower. He left St. Lawrence December 1889 to assume his pastoral duties at Holy Name Parish, Sheboygan, where he remained till August 1892. From 1892 to 1897 he was pastor of St. John's Parish, Jefferson, where he died in 1897.

The next pastor, the REVEREND PETER SCHWAIGER, became a resident of St. Lawrence in December, 1889. He was born in Bavaria, on April 28, 1838. He commenced his studies in Ratisbon, Bavaria, in 1853. He came to the United States in 1858, arriving at New York September 15, of that year. He then entered St. Vincent's Seminary at Pennsylvania, where he remained until spring of 1859, when he came to Milwaukee and entered the Seminary of St. Francis. There he completed his studies and was ordained to the priesthood on December 27, 1863. He filled successively the pastorates of several congregations in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, the last one prior to his appointment to St. Lawrence being that of Holy Name Church, Sheboygan. He died January 27, 1903 at St. Lawrence and was buried in the parish cemetery.

St. Lawrence parish then consisted of one hundred fifty two families, or from eight hundred to nine hundred souls. There were three departments in the parochial school, the total attendance was about one hundred and fifty five pupils. The school was conducted by three Sisters of St. Agnes of Fond-du Lac, Wis.

Among Catholic societies connected with the parish there were the St. Lawrence Aid Society; St. Mary's Ladies' Society and St. Rose's Young Ladies' Sodality.

During his incumbency, which lasted to 1902, Father Schwaiger collected funds for a Highaltar, which was installed in 1891, by the Goyers Bros., Louvern, Belgium, a master-piece of woodcarving. It was on May 10, 1896, that a special parish meeting was called for the purpose of commemorating the 50th Anniversary of St. Lawrence Congregation, in the same year.

The REVEREND ALBERT TH. REININGER succeeded him as pastor in 1903. Father Reininger was born Dec. 21, 1850 at Baden, Germany; ordained June 26, 1881, at St. Francis Seminary.

During his pastorate the following improvements were made: The installation of the present organ (1903) at a cost of $2,000; new Stations in 1907; decoration of the church in the same year, for the sum of $1,200.

St. Lawrence Church was struck by lightning on August 27, 1909, which caused damage to the 165 ft. high church steeple.

Father Reininger died on February 16, 1941 at St. Mary's Hospital, Racine, and was buried at Chilton, Wisconsin.

The REVEREND PETER J. BURELBACH was appointed to succeed Father Reininger in July, 1910. Several improvements have been made during his pastorate. A modern heating and plumbing system had been installed from 1912-13, in school, Sisters' Convent and Rectory. Father Burelbach left the parish in November 1921. At present, he is chaplain at the Alverno Cottage, Jefferson, Wisconsin.

His successor, REVEREND C. F. KEYSER, came to the parish in 1921. During his pastorate an electric organ blower for the sum of $259.00, was installed (1925), and an addition to the Sisters' Home, consisting of a dining-room and study had been added (1924).

Father Keyser was appointed pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Milwaukee in 1926, where he is still active as pastor.

During his pastorate, which lasted from 1926 to 1928, the REV. THEO. J. HARD built a garage, east of the Rectory.

The REVEREND ALEXANDER KARRELS, succeeded him as pastor of St. Lawrence. He made a number of needed improvements, as for instance, Fire cistern, west of the church, built in 1929; new furnace and blower in church (1931) at a cost of $1,445.

Father Karrels was appointed pastor of St. Boniface in June 1933, where he remained till 1944. At present Reverend Karrels is chaplain at St. Saviour's Annex, Portage, Wis.

SCHOOL CHILDREN (1946)

The REVEREND O. F. ULLRICH, succeeded Father Karrels, June 1933. Several improvements have been made during his pastorate. Under his able leadership the much needed improvements of the parish cemetery were started in March 1934. After the cemetery was leveled, seeded and plotted, it became the pride of St. Lawrence. The cemetery received a dignified main entrance on the north-west side; trees and shrubs were planted in order to complete the landscaping of the sacred grounds. All expenses were paid through the generosity of the parishioners and friends of the parish.

The church basement was remodeled for the use of a church hall and was dedicated Sunday, December 22, 1935, under the Auspices of the Catholic Knights of Wisconsin.

In 1937 a new roof was put on the church by F. J. Christiansen Roofing Co., Milwaukee, at a cost of $2,610.00. The interior of the church was decorated in 1938 by J. F. Falkenbach; the electric lighting readjusted by P. A. Mueller & Sons, and the sanctuary floor laid for the sum of $4,000, of which $2,800.00 had been paid for the church decoration.

Father Ullrich left the parish in April 1945, when he was appointed pastor of St. Mary's Church, Barton, Wis., where he is still active as pastor.

The REVEREND WILLIAM J. WEISHAUPL, present pastor, took charge of this parish on Wednesday, April 18, 1945.

He was ordained to the Holy priesthood on February 2, 1928, at St. Francis Seminary, and received his first appointment as assistant pastor of St. Leo's Church, Milwaukee, where he remained till June 1932. From June 16, until May 22, 1934 he was assistant pastor at St. Lawrence Church, Milwaukee. He left St. Lawrence to assume his pastoral duties at St. Hubert's Parish and St. Mary's Mission, Richfield.

Since his coming to this parish, one year has passed and it is gratifying to know that the people of St. Lawrence have cooperated splendidly with their pastor and their Trustees, Anton Mueller and Otto Krebs.

In June 1945, a new entrance to the church hall and sidewalks and a driveway to the church have been completed. The contract had been let to John Thorn of Hartford, Wis. During the summer of the same year the Rectory kitchen and porch as well as the two upper class-rooms in school have been remodeled. All above improvements had been made at a cost of $3,800.

At the annual parish meeting on January 16, 1946, it was decided to enlarge the present hall, install an oil burner in church and remodel the kitchen and enclose the entrance to the sacristy. The following members were appointed on the building committee: Oscar Peil, Hy. Schellinger, Arthur Stoffel, and Frank Ziegelbauer. The contract was let to Ben Tennies, West Bend, Wis., and work was started March 12. The heating and plumbing contract was awarded to Arnold Wickert, Slinger, the electrical work to P. A. Mueller and Sons, Hartford. The proximate cost was $3,000.

At the end of February an oil burner was installed in the Rectory and other timely improvements in the Sisters' Home and school were made recently.

At present there are one hundred and forty families in the parish, and one hundred children attend the parochial school.

With the approach of the coming Centennial Jubilee of St. Lawrence Congregation, careful preparations have been made to make this Jubilee year 1946, the outstanding year in the parish history.

May the Almighty grant St. Lawrence Congregation many more years of spiritual and temporal prosperity.

ST. LAWRENCE SCHOOL

It was in the year 1847, during the administration of Reverend Charles Schraudenbach, the first resident pastor, that the erection of a school house was begun. The instructions were given in German. In 1856, the Reverend Casper Rehrl, then pastor of St. Lawrence gave instructions in German and English. Under his pastorate the Sisters of St. Agnes from Barton taught at St. Lawrence School. The names of the Sisters who taught here were: Sister Tecla Dulzo, Sister Louise Wolsiffer, Sister Theodore Nash and Sister Tecla Reindl directed the school for seven years.

Under Day Schools in the Catholic Almanac of 1869 the school is listed as: St. Lawrence, a large Catholic and Public School.

According to the records of the School Sisters of St. Francis, their Sisters went to St. Lawrence in 1877 to take care of the school. How long they remained, is not known. They were followed by the Sisters of St. Agnes. The records of the School Sisters date back to 1895, all previous records having been destroyed by fire. However, there is a record that St. Lawrence School opened in 1877, was their first mission after St. Matthew's, Campbellsport.

The first Superior was Sister M. Augustina Lethert, who later became General Secretary of the Community. Sister M. Bernardina Bonischo and Sister M. Agnes Mooney were with her as teachers.

It was under the pastorate of Rev. N. Thill, in 1886, that a brick school house was erected.

The Sisters of St. Agnes, Fond du Lac, Wis., accepted St. Lawrence School, August 9, 1882. The following are the names of most of the sisters who taught here:

Sister Corona Mohr
Sister Innocentia Heinz
Sister Germaine Cassin
Sister Dorothy Kreuder
Sister Cosma Quint
Sister Hyacinth Blum
Sister Evangelist Epple
Sister Theresa Ankenbruck
Sister Veronica Wilde
Sister Ottilia Hess
Sister Armella Kraemer
Sister Crescentia Meier

Sister Dorothy Kreuder died in St. Lawrence on July 14, 1898, and is buried here.

In 1889 there were three departments with an attendance of 155 children. The school was conducted by three Sisters of St. Agnes.

In 1896, under the pastorate of Reverend Peter Schwaiger, the school was conducted by four Sisters of St. Agnes, Sister Dorothea, Superior; number of pupils: Boys 77; girls 73.

Former Missions of St. Lawrence

MISSION OF ST. MATHIAS, NABOB, WISCONSIN

The Congregation of St. Mathias at West Bend (Nabob), was attended as a mission from St. Lawrence. It was first established in 1848 by Father Schraudenbach.

In 1849, Father Beiter took charge of the mission. Then Father Weikmann came to the parish in 1856. From 1863-65, Father Deisenrieder came from St. Lawrence to care for the parish. He was followed by Father Weiss, who was in charge of St. Mathias until 1868.

In 1869, first mention of a school was made. After it was built, the institution served both as a parochial and public school.

In 1881 Father Thill, pastor of St. Lawrence church, took charge until 1889. He was succeeded by the Rev. P. Schwaiger, who served until 1899. The parish at that time consisted of thirty seven families, the most of whom were Germans. Services were held at St. Mathias church every Sunday. There was an attendance of fifty two pupils at the parochial school connected with this congregation, in charge of the School Sisters of St. Agnes. Father Thill was the last priest of St. Lawrence that had charge of St. Mathias, Nabob.

MISSION OF ST. PETER'S, SLINGER, WIS.

Prior to the year 1856, at the time which the congregation of St. Peter's at Schlessingerville (Slinger) was established, the Catholics in that locality were visited by missionary priests who occasionally passed through that way, celebrating Mass in the dwellings of different Catholic settlers. In 1856, however, a small log church was erected, the congregation being attended as a mission from St. Lawrence and Barton. This method of visitation was continued until 1870, services during the interval being conducted successively by the Reverend Fathers Deisenrieder and Martin Heiss, who came there from St. Lawrence.

The parish of St. Kilian was established in 1863 under the direction of the Reverend Father Deisenrieder of St. Lawrence parish.

In 1848, while under the administration of Father Schraudenbach, the congregation of SS. Peter & Paul was organized, and the first church built. This was at Addison where the congregation was in a very prosperous condition.

DEED OF ST. LAWRENCE CHURCH PROPERTY

THIS INDENTURE, Made this fifteenth day of June in the year eighteen hundred and forty nine, between John Schuetz and Margaretha his wife, of the county of Washington, state of Wisconsin, parties of the first part, and the Right Reverend J. M. Henni, Roman Catholic Bishop of Milwaukee, and its Diocese, party of the second part;

WITNESSETH: That the said parties of the first part have given and granted unto the said party of the second part and to his successor in the said Bishopric for the uses and purposes and subject to the conditions hereinafter contained in trust forever, the following described parcel of land, lying and being in the county of Washington aforesaid and bounded as follows, to wit: Beginning at the north west corner of the north east quarter of the north west fractional quarter of section number two in township number ten north of range number eighteen east, thence east on town line between towns ten and eleven in range eighteen aforesaid eleven chains, thence south thirteen and one half chains, thence west one chain to the Fond du Lac Road, thence with the road aforesaid north thirty-six degrees west sixteen 80/100 chains to the place of beginning the said land containing eight and one tenth acres more or less; together with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and all the estate, right, title, interest, claim or demand whatsoever, in either in law or equity, of the said parties of the first part, of in or to the above bargained premises with the hereditaments and appurtenances.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above described premises with the hereditaments and appurtenances unto the said party of the second part, and to his successor in the aforesaid Bishopric, in trust for the uses and purposes of the Saint Lawrence Roman Catholic Church forever. And the said parties of the first part for themselves, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, do further covenant and agree to and with the said parties of the second part and to his successor in the Bishopric, that at the time of the ensealing and delivery of these presents, they were well seized of the within described premises, as of a good, sure, perfect and indefeasible inheritance in the law in fee simple, that they are free and clear of all incumbrances, of any kind or nature whatsoever, and that in the quiet and peaceable possession of the said party of the second part and to his successor forever, they will forever warrant and defend.

But the condition of the grant is subject to the following condition, to witt: first: the first two seats next to the altar, one on each side of the principal aisle, are to be reserved for the use of the grantor and their heirs forever. Second: The seats in the church shall not be rented, but the members of the church shall be equally entitled to them with the exception of the reservation in the first condition. Third: No lot or lots in the grave yard attached to the church shall ever be rented or sold, but shall be free for burial purposes to the members of the church. Fourth: That for any improvements that may be necessary to be made, no lease of money shall be made on the faith of the land, nor shall any debt be contracted on account of the land or of the church, but all debts contracted shall be paid by the members of the church leaving the within described premises forever free and unincumbered for the uses of worship, according to the rites of the Holy Catholic Church.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

THE BELLS OF ST. LAWRENCE

The four bells that hang in the tower of St. Lawrence church bear the following inscriptions:

The largest bell was named in honor of St. Lawrence, in memory of the members of the parish.

The second largest bell is called St. Barbara, in memory of Barbara Mueller and Margaret Kreilkamp.

The third bell was named in honor of the B.V.M., Mother of God, in memory of the B.V.M. Sodality and Married Ladies' Society.

All these bells are dated A. D. 1886 and bear the name of the foundry McShane Bell Foundry, Baltimore, Md.

The smallest bell has no other inscription except for the year 1857 and name of the foundry -- Meneeley's West Troy, N. Y.
